The relationships of the college, inclusive of the Board of Governors, administration, faculty and staff, and our students, are reflected in the Myrtle Beach College Covenant. This short agreement, which everyone who wishes to participate in the college community must be willing to accept, helps guide and regulate our life together. Our covenant is as follows:

We the Board of Governors, administration, faculty, staff, and student body of Myrtle Beach College promise to help one another:

- Honor God by our words and actions, aspiring to love our Creator with all of our heart, mind, soul and strength.
- Honor one another as children of God by treating others as we wish to be treated.
- Do what is right in the eyes of God, setting our minds upon those things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, and admirable, and whatever is excellent and praiseworthy.
- Strive to mature in Christian love as we seek to remember that, "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, and it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, and it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres."
- Support the mission of Myrtle Beach College by our commitment to its ideals and by helping to provide for its financial needs.

I accept and will abide by the Myrtle Beach College covenant: *
